Summertime and the living is easy....and your officers are still busy at work. If you would like to volunteer in Space City, but don't know where to begin, call me or one of the other officers and we'll be happy to point you in the right direction. WE NEED YOU!!!!

We will be well represented in the Texas Ski Council this coming year. Jerry Montgomery did such an excellent job as last year's VP - Final Showdown, that the delegates elected him as VP - Texas Ski Week Traditional for 1992-93. Ted Bergeron was appointed to the TSC Race Committee and Pam Holder is wearing yet another hat in the Council as she was appointed to lead the TSC Expedition to Innsbruck, Austria. They will be a real asset to the Council. For more information on the Texas Ski Council, check my last TSC report in this month's Sitzmarke. For information on all of the trips, including the TSC trips, be sure to read Debbie Bergeron's article, From the Ski Desk.

SCSC's Board of Directors approved the appointments of Louise Job and Chris James as the Directors of Trips (DOTS) for '92-'93. I know they'll be a great addition to the trips "Team".

Kim Page was appointed our TSC representative and Ed Cain as the alternate representative for 1992-93. Lynn Eaton and Ted Bergeron have been elected to fill the two vacancies on the Board of Director. Bill Kirk will be Audit Chairperson. Terry McGuinness was approved as SCSC's Overall Race Director.

Peggy Donley produced another FANTASTIC Follies. Many thanks to all of the volunteers who helped make this year's Follies a success. The SUMMER FUN OLYMPICS will be June 12-14, so be there or be square!!!

Remember, there are no meetings in June, July and August so keep the Sitzmarke arriving in your mailbox by renewing your membership NOW. Then you'll be kept up to date on all of the fun events Tom Hogle has planned for the summer. The Happy Hour will be Thursday, June 18th, at Shanghai Red's. See you there.

FROM THE SKI DESK

by Debbie Bergeron, VP of Trips

The Texas Ski Council trips have now been chosen, SCSC trip leader applicants have been considered and lined up for our anticipated 1992-93 trip schedule, and the Ski Desk is rolling along! Since probably 95% of our members are not aware of the TSC selection process, I thought I'd take a minute to explain...

THIS YEAR, over 17 operators offered 40 proposals to the TSC Pre-Select Committee, who narrowed that list down to 18 after considering trip price, location & accessibility, resort ability to accommodate and provide facilities for 300 to 1200 TSC members, their experience in dealing with large groups, the activities offered, and sufficient terrain to accommodate various skiing levels. Each club is given a set number of votes based on their size, and since Space City is in the largest division, we are allowed 5 votes. A meeting of delegates is held after the bid presentations to discuss each destination, and then a roll call vote is taken and all votes tallied. In case you haven't heard the outcome of this year's TSC Bid Meeting yet, here it is...

FOR THANKSGIVING -- how about guaranteed snow? The only resort in Colorado with two gondolas and added capacity to cut lift lines in half -- the Outback skiing experience -- a $6 million dollar Outpost restaurant complex at an 11,044 foot elevation -- the TSC FALL ROUNDUP WILL BE AT KEYSTONE, COLORADO.

FOR TSC TRADITIONAL -- where our very own JERRY MONTGOMERY has been selected as Vice President for the entire Texas Ski Council and 120 SCSCers will experience a down-home real Western atmosphere that often boasts up to 27 feet of champagne powder -- 80 of us will converge upon STEAMBOAT SPRINGS from January 9-16th and 40 from January 12-17th -- YAHOO!

The TEXAS EXPEDITION begins January 28th to INNSBRUCK, AUSTRIA with a diversity of ski areas within 30 minutes from the city's center -- side trips to include Salzburg, Venice, the Royal Bavarian Castles, and a possible overnigher in Amsterdam -- not to mention that SCSC's PAM HOLDER has been selected as Expedition Coordinator for the entire Texas Ski Council.

For the WINTER SHOOTOUT -- a new destination for the TSC -- the largest year-round resort in its state -- hi-tech snowmaking on 85% of its 45 skiable miles -- where $10 million has been invested over the past six years -- rated the #1 ski resort experience in its region three years in a row by Snow Country Magazine and last year as the #2 resort in North America only behind Deer Valley, Utah -- SUGARLOAF, MAINE, A NEW ENGLAND EXPERIENCE from February 20th-27th. Be one of the first to visit this resort where a lift has been built right in the middle of the condominium complex to whisk you up onto the slopes!

For the FINAL SHOWDOWN on March 27th -- 82 trails, 5 challenging bowls, over half a dozen other first-class resorts located less than 60 minutes away -- Home of the U.S. Ski Team, the U.S. Ski Association, and Site of the 1993 TSC Final Showdown is PARK CITY, UTAH, where TSC participants will also be invited to attend the Snowshine Festival, Park City's annual festival of snow volleyball competition, dance contests, Reggae Beach Parties, and more!

The complete SCSC SKI TRIP SCHEDULE should be published in next month's Sitzmarke, so keep watching this column and the entire Sitz -- your SCSC source of information -- and be watching for future trip signup procedures (hint, hint)... I have to sign off for now so I can get back to the phone and the airlines with all their unique, indefinite, and ever-changing, new group travel policies. You just can't imagine how fun it's been!!

TEXAS SKI COUNCIL REPORT

by Craig T. Liebergot, TSC Representative

The Texas Ski Council met in San Antonio the week-end of April 10-12th. This final meeting of the 1991-92 Council is called the Bid Meeting where ski resorts worldwide present bids and answer questions asked by the delegates from the 20 clubs that make up the TSC. Additionally, the election of the TSC officers for 1992-93 occurs at this meeting. The resorts that were selected are as follows:

Keystone - Fall Round Up	Steamboat Springs - Traditional
Sugar Loaf - Winter Shoot Out	Park City - Final Showdown
Innsbruck, Austria - Expedition

Be sure and check this month's article, From the Ski Desk, for a complete update of all of the TSC trips.

Saturday evening, Space City's Ginger Howard, Debbie Bergeron and Ted Bergeron proudly accepted the Texas Ski Cup for Division I. Because Space City has won it three years in a row, the Cup comes home to SCSC...permanently!!! Great going to those who raced for Space City! Joe Dar, President of Lone Star, graciously presented us with a lovely bottle of champagne to congratulate us. The Twisters took Division II and Club St. Bernard took Division III.

The election of the TSC officers took place Sunday morning. Gary Kuchcinski, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate of nominees. Rhonda McGree (Club St. Bernard) and James Mershon (Lone Star) were both named as Presidential nominees. An election was held with the voting done by secret ballot. Rhonda McGree won the office of President. Dave Corbin (Clear Lake Area Ski Club) was nominated as VP-Marketing. James Mershon was nominated from the floor for the same position. Dave Corbin won the vote. Bill Sneed (West Central) was nominated for VP Fall Round Up and Alan Rudnai (Texins) was nominated from the floor. Bill Sneed won that vote. The rest of the slate ran unopposed and the TSC officers for 1992-93 are:

President: Rhonda McGree (Club St. Bernard)
VP-Marketing: Dave Corbin (Clear Lake Area Ski Club)
Treasurer: Steve Gucker (Austin Skiers)
VP Fall Round Up: Bill Sneed (West Central)
VP Traditional: Jerry Montgomery (Space City)
VP Winter Shoot Out: Jack Macy (Capital Downhill)
VP Final Showdown: Diane McClendon (Lone Star)

The next Delegates Meeting will be held in Dallas on June 6th. I've enjoyed being your TSC rep this year. It's been fun, as well as, a learning experience. Thanks.....

AMERICAN VAUDEVILLE

Debbie & Ted Bergeron and Jeri Hartman before the show

LIGHTS! CAMERAS! ACTION!

On the verge of opening night, forty would-be thespians from SCSC gathered at Birraporetti's for a toast before taking to the stage. soon enough, it was curtain time. The mood of vaudeville, first created by Eddie Cantor, was aptly introduced by Manolo Valle. the Male-Female Comedy Team carried the spirit along thanks to Jimmy St. Clair and Jill Hebl. Dick Caldwell played George M. Cohan, the original song and dance man, with a beautiful rendition of "Yankee Doodle Dandy". Fanny Brice, also known as Karen Putney, presented her philosophy of vaudeville, while Scott Joplin (Jim Felker) serenaded his. Cross-dressing, as was popular during vaudeville, Dana Wardell played an incomparable Al Jolson. After intermission, Suzanne Baker and George Sanford started ACT II with some terrific Houdini tricks. Not to be outdone, Charles and Pat Van Tassel led the audience in Irving Berlin's "Play a Simple Melody", while Debbie Bergeron assisted Ted in his W. C. Fields routine. Before we knew it, time arrived to close the show with "Always Leave Them Laughing When You Say Goodbye." As the troupe gathered on stage to say good night, we all had a new appreciation of vaudeville performers and their vision of the past. What a night of escapism.

Sandra McCunis, Karen Putney and Rosanne Clark

STEAMBOAT

by Barabara Huey

All of the group arrived at ICH on time. Checking baggage was totally uneventful until... JoAnn Lane found she couldn't get through security because she had her house/car keys on her person along with a canister of mace. She raced back to check-in and put the keys in Jim McLaughlin's ski bag just before it was checked. Next thing we learn is that B.J. Scott is missing and Jim Turner is beginning to panic. Final boarding call is announced and still no B.J. What occurred was B.J. had gone to park their car in the municipal parking lot and had to wait over 20 minutes to be picked up. She made the plane!!

We arrived in Steamboat on a prop driven plane, safe and sound. Everyone raced for their bags, anxious to get this ski trip on it's way. Now comes the FUN part. Nine pair of skis are missing. One pair was Jim McLaughlin's along with JoAnn's keys. Dear Ole Continental either had to leave some of us, or our luggage, back in Denver because this little ole plane couldn't carry it all. Also they had put all the claim checks on one ticket, so all the bags had to be checked to determine what ski bags were missing. We had all the employees on their knees sorting claim checks. Whata ZOO! Finally - we were on our way.

Waking in Steamboat with very little snow was a bitter disappointment, but being the great troopers we were, all became even more determined to make the most of it. We're here - let's PARTY!!! We met and had our pictures taken for lift tickets; had breakfast; rented skis; and headed for the slopes. Bandannas - with the State of Texas - were distributed to each person to tie on for I.D. This came in handy at lunch when we all met at the B.K. Corral. We were able to hold two tables and rotated 40 people during the next hour.

Several groups skied together and during lunch, episodes of the morning were revealed. Dale Albritton skied with Anice Bilberry and others during the morning. Anice asked me where I got my 4"x 6" carryall and made the mistake of asking what it was. Dale (having skied with this aggressive, outspoken lady all morning) stated "It's called a body bag. When we let all the air out of Anice - she'll fit right in." Anice is a great sport and took this in stride. Later in the day Anice did a 360 with excellent form—except for the broken ankle.

Wednesday was our first social—The Margarita Party. All gathered in the party condo for this event. A game mixer was enjoyed by all and won by Richard Caldwell. The prize was a pair of $ sign baskets for his ski poles. Anice was awarded her own "body bag" for her bravery in ascending the three flights of steps to the condo on crutches. Dale, Arlen Isham, Steve Benson and Sandy Hoffman had run NASTAR that day and came away with Dale, Steve, and Arlen winning Silver medals and Sandy a Bronze.

We learned Pete Frost is a beautiful skier; however, due to lack of endurance was unable to handle two women at once. Bob Knupp enjoyed the black runs and did some serious tree skiing in the Shadows. Rick Kvich was seen skiing anything and everything. Mike Bilberry was a late addition to our trip and didn't get to stay and ski long, returning to Houston with Anice. Bill Armstrong was on the slopes all day and, even though quite soft-spoken, stated he was enjoying the skiing. Jim Wayne, our member from Victoria, managed to accompany our group on its Western Trek.

Thursday brought more tall tales from the slopes. It seems Norm Carcasson received a knee injury and returned to Houston. It was learned during the hot tub get together that JoAnn Lane has more than one way to come down the mountain. Seems she met up with three ski patrols - "real men" - ask JoAnn for details. It's said that Margie Kirkpatrick is as much a daredevil on the slopes as she is deep sea diving. She was usually accompanied by Janet Weber on these escapades and my —what these two gals didn't try on the slopes.

We understand that Cathy Storey got lost on Rolex. Actually she'd do anything to get a Rolex Badge. They were as scarce as hen's teeth to find. I can attest to this as I walked about five miles searching for one for the awards party.

Arlen Isham was always the last person off the mountain. He also had the best roller coaster run banking up and down between trees with Dale and Bob. Jo Beth Isham tried to ski with Arlen but by noon was ready for the tamer slopes - and the gals. Their condomate, Anne Nettles, was always ready to chat upon returning each day and it's reported she had some excellent Westerns to read on the trip.

The Group

What's this about Steve Teoh mud skiing? Steve, the next time you fall, try to make it in the snow. Sandy Hoffman wanted to Ski, Ski, Ski!! She was constantly checking out conditions on the slopes for beginning skiers, which was greatly appreciated.

Lou Kleinman gave us some sage advice about Harry Melnick. Lou says - never ski with Harry when you're on your last run of the day and Harry says, "We'll take our time." Actually Lou had a lot more hair before this trip.

This writer had several persons ask if Dak Johnson did anything besides play cards. It seems that the condo of Dak, JoAnn Lane, Sue Barnett, and Kim Connally spent a lot of time "playing cards?"

Thursday night was also C&W night at The Steamboat Saloon. The Saloon is owned by a couple from Texas and they welcomed us by sending over "shooters" for the entire group. It seems their version of a shooter was a concoction of rum and Hawaiian Punch. We danced the night away to a band from New Mexico. We had our "Best Damned Bandanna Contest", with awards presented by Anice Bilberry to JoAnn Lane and Sue Barnett who won first places for the best female bandannas. Jim Walters was seen wearing a bandana, but Ivan Butterfield won the best male segment with a beautiful bandanna made by his dear mother. B.J. Scott & Jim Turner and Arlen & Jo Beth Isham were awarded booby prizes for best try. All 25 attendees participated by wearing bandannas of some form and fashion.

Elyse Turla attended the C&W event, but didn't stick with the group. Seems she was checking out the cowboys at the bar. Just who was the fella that kept your attention all evening, Elyse???

Rumors were flying that there was much more snow on the other side of the mountain, so a group got together to drive to Vail. Jim McLaughlin and Norm Rund decided to drive over the evening before. The drive takes about two hours - max. Jim reports that Norm drove for two hours and they found they were still only 47 miles outside of Steamboat. Guess they had just "circled the resort" all that time. Next time fellas--take a compass!!

Those fortunate enough to ski Vail had a blast. The snow was perfect. The Vail employees were happy to see us and gave us a comp lift ticket for the day which was donated to a breakfast on the mountain. Things went rather smoothly after we arrived with one exception. Judy Yoens got lost about 9:00am and didn't surface until time to leave for the return trip to Steamboat. She blames this on poor eyesight and not being able to read the signs; however, she had taken a change of clothes with her, so we wonder if she really was skiing!! Art Kelly spent the day coaching Lisa Libatore, our newest skier. Lisa managed to fall just as the Vail Synchronized Ski Team came by. In her beautiful new ski outfit, Lisa managed to cause them to break rank.

For Saturday, Sandy had arranged for NASTAR over in Bashor Bowl. Arlen Isham volunteered to be Race Director. Also, I understand "Poker" was involved with the person having the best hand being the winner. I was told that getting to the bowl was a piece of cake--just easy runs. What easy runs? They were all ice!!

It seems there was some panic upon arrival at the NASTAR course when the group noticed that a World Cup Race had also been scheduled. The "big race" turned out to be a group of 10 year old munchkins, who were exceptionally good. However, they accommodated our group by setting up two runs for us, a Marlboro and NASTAR.

Dale Albritton, Scott Keller, Jim Waltz and Harry Melnick won Silver medals and Arlen Isham, Dak Johnson and Kim Connally won Bronze. Scott Keller had the fastest time. Jo Beth Isham battled Cathy Storey to the wire on the Marlboro course.

Our last night in Steamboat was "Awards Dinner Night". Apparently the dinner was enjoyed by all because we saw some going back through the buffet line 4-5 times. Sandy presented many, many awards. The first awards were to the people that raced. Judy Yoens was awarded the eyeglass strap for the glasses she needs to get - soon! Cathy Storey got her "Rolex" pin. Lisa Libatore and Jim Turner received awards for the most improved skiers. The winning poker hand went to Harry Melnick. Elyse Turla got the "purple dickie" award as she and Lucresai Nelson kept one of the men out till 3am.

On Sunday morning snow-mobiling was the activity of the day. Fourteen of us went to Rabbit Ears Pass for a two hour jaunt. It seems Arlene Veach and JoAnn Lane parted company with their vehicles at one point--without injury we might add! It was also reported that you don't ever get in front or behind Steve Teoh. Seems he even lost track of the guide. Way to go, Steve!

All came back windblown, but full of excitement about their experience. We have some great pictures to prove they were there! They arrived back at LaCasa just 30 minutes before departure for the airport and our return to Houston. A number of us had sent our skis and luggage on to Houston the day before, so we were all able to get on the plane out of Steamboat.

The trip home was uneventful and both Sandy and I wish to contribute our "No Whining" buttons to next season's TCs and ATCs with our blessings!!!

Accolades: There were many people on the trip that added much to keeping the TC/ATC's frustration at a minimum. Those of you know who you are without our naming names. We want to express our utmost appreciation for your efforts. You'll long be remembered for your favors! Thanks.
