HEAD OF THE LIFTLINE

by Ray Naudain

A group from Space City attended the Texas Ski Council bid selection meeting in San Antonio to determine next year's TSC trips. John Cook, TSC Vice President of Marketing, did an excellent job presenting areas for all the Texas clubs to choose from. After much deliberation, Vail was selected for Fall Roundup during Thanksgiving, Snowmass for Traditional Ski Week in January, Sun Valley Winter Shootout for February, Banff for March and Courmayeur, Italy for the European trip in late January.

Pam Holder has been appointed our TSC Representative for 1990-91 with Jerry Montgomery as the alternate. I would like to thank Bill Kirk for his efforts as the TSC Representative this past year. Ginger Howard, Lynn Eaton and Ted Bergeron have been appointed to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors. Donna Repka and Debbie Bergeron have been appointed as Directors of Trips.

For the first time ever, a list of the ski trips is published in this issue with estimated prices. Beginning July 1 you will be able to sign up for a trip by mail (see Craig's article for details). Don't forget to renew your membership early.

The upcoming summer activities include the Guadalupe River Rafting Trip, Corpus Christi Triathlon, Brazos Bend State Park Bike Ride/Star Gazing and the Summer Bash. The Happy Hour will be at Cody's on June 21st.

All who participated in the follies did an excellent job with special thanks to Kathy Morgan for her direction.

No General Meeting will be held in June, July or August. Check your Sitzmarke for more details on trips and activities.

VAIL

by Craig Tharpe and Brian Blauvelt

The Group!

Vail may have been the last trip of the ski season for SCSC, but everyone on the trip agreed that it was worth the wait. Twenty-eight excited SCSC'ers, led by Craig Tharpe (AKA Captain Ahab) enjoyed five full days of spring skiing at one of the premier resorts in the country and what a group it was!!!

Jim Burton (AKA Jimmy the Cliff) skied over a cliff between "seldom and never" in Sundown Bowl and is still walking! He has perfected the technique of skiing on baseless skis. Brian Blauvelt (Mr. Outer Mongolia) and Dick Howard (Mr. Inner Mongolia) sought out skiing locations few skiers dare to go. However, they did lead Carol Biebers, Linda Licarione, Michelle Lamb, Merlyn Harger, Karen Putney and Jack Coblenz through the "pearly gates" of the Sundown Bowl into Heaven (or Hell, depending on who you talk to).

Jack Rich (AKA Party Animal) who just entered into his 7th decade of skiing, skied the snow off of the mountain and then led the group to Pepi's for apres' ski relaxation. Pepi (former Austrian ski team member and Olympic gold medalist) was there and Jack brought him over to meet the group.

Bob Tyer (AKA Helicopter Bob) won 2 silver NASTAR medals. Tom Mercer, Marty Matras, Sy Liebergot and Sandy Hoffman also won silver Medals. Darwin Miller found that he had the wrong wax for "grass" skiing when he stopped suddenly at China Bowl, leaving skis behind. However, he still managed to win 1 silver and 1 bronze NASTAR medal!!!!

Sandy Hoffman (AKA Bullwheel Betty) ignored the "check for loose clothing" sign on one lift and failed to get off, since her fanny pack was firmly caught in the lift chair, necessitating a near round trip. Wasn't that special?? Then, she was seen running the NASTAR course after the gates were taken down. Now, that was really special!!!!

The last bit of spring skiing is only for true fanatics.

Cecil Smith continued to hone his skiing skills by spending the entire trip in ski lessons.

Peggy Donley skied the moguls (not by choice) and Richard Wagner skied them while carrying Pam Gillan's skis (Pam's not stupid!!).

Scott White won the award for the worst sunburn on record!

Sy Liebergot, world famous chili chef, showed all of us why he won all of those chili cook-off trophies by giving all of us "ample samples" of Buffalo Snort Chili at our chili dinner. It definitely kept everyone moving on the dance floor later at Cyrano's. Speaking of Cyrano's, was that really movie star, Richard Dreyfus, whose lap Beverly Merritt was sitting on? Bo Wright, Diana Mills and Linda Licarione danced until 2:00 a.m. and were still up bright and early (well...maybe not bright) to hit the slopes.

APRIL FOOL'S CAMPOUT

by Terry Ross

The campout started with real style for the four of us who opted to arrive Friday night at the Ross Farm. We were treated to a gourmet dinner of Beef Stroganoff, corn on the cob and red wine prepared and served by Jerry Pyle. His efforts were greatly appreciated by Peggy Donley and Bill Kirk, who showed their thanks by washing the dishes.

After getting up with the sun on Saturday to watch the deer grazing in the pasture, Peggy and Terry Ross put up signs and balloons so the farm could be easily found.

Early morning brought the arrival of Ted and Debbie Bergeron, Jerry Montgomery, Sue Salvage, Diane bike ride. The remainder decided the eight miles into Fayetteville and back to the Ross Farm was enough, especially after a stopover that included lunch!!!

Shortly before noon, Alex Temp-ski arrived with his 7-year old son, Mikolaj. Although the sky was overcast and the weather was rather cool, Alex allowed that it was "perfect" as far as he was concerned, so he and Mikolaj immediately donned slickers and set out for the creek.

As the bikers returned to find Bill Vasen and Shelly Biovid setting up camp, Alex and Mikolaj showed up with Mikolaj's treasure - the rib bone of a cow. A large group played volleyball, while Vic Swartz and Leslie Ybarra tried their hand at horseshoes. Shortly afterwards, Jerry Pyle showed up after spending the afternoon fishing down on the creek. We all finally convinced Jerry that, although his "catch" was indeed impressive, one small sun perch would not be enough for appetizers!!!

By dinner time Terry Cummings and John Thayer, Les and Ken Reding, Nancy O'Sullivan and Craig Jorgenson, as well as others, had erected tents all over the yard. Melissa and Bob Frazier, along with Lynn and Harold Eaton had set up their respective "campout vans" and all were ready to chow down. Fortunately, although the day had been cloudy, the only rain experienced by any of the group was on the drive from Houston to Fayetteville.

Before, during and after dinner all the campers enjoyed the entertainment of Scott Thayer, Nick Frazier and Erin Eaton as their respective parents took turns pulling the three of them around the yard in Nick's little red wagon. Even Jim Plummer got in the spirit of things and took a turn or two of being the chauffeur. Nick's younger brother, Jeff, was not phased by all the goings on with the wagon as he quietly watched the happenings from his stroller --earlier in the day he had had his turn in the wagon at the Spring Fling.

Bill Kirk getting a "plate" full!

Osborn, Viva and Bill Morgan, Donna Repka, Craig Sears and Tom Williams. They arrived looking for Ray Naudain who had said to get there early for the bike ride. However, Ray had still not arrived by 11:00 a.m. and since the day was wasting away, 13 intrepid riders decided to start the ride without him. (He showed up just as everyone was leaving and quickly changed and caught up with them.) The first wave of bikers was followed by Jim Plummer, Sharon Inman, and Carol Jagou. Holly Inman and Kay Ellig, who opted to drive into Fayetteville, found most of the bikers engrossed in shopping at the Fayetteville Spring Fling. Only two riders, Ray Naudain and Jerry Montgomery made the complete 29-mile

In the relaxation department, when the group was not skiing, all could be found in the hot tub enjoying beer and wine and each other's company.

Tom Mercer (AKA Cecil B. DeMercer) videoed everyone skiing, while his sidekick and battery pack person, Pam Holder, re-charged his batteries as needed (Hmmm???)

Ron Brooks, formerly known as "Sparky," now known as "Sack Hound" slept through the entire trip except for a few intense shopping sprees.

And a great big thank you to Linda Licarione, Dennis Bentley and Merlyn Harger who helped improve our skiing skills by being our volunteer ski instructors.

Vail was a successful trip, born out of the first trip of the season, the cancelled Thanksgiving trip to Snowbird and Bev and I want to thank all of you for making it so successful. You were all super and it was a delight being with all of you for the last trip of the season. And, as for next year, THINK SNOW!!!!

TEXAS SKI COUNCIL MEETING UPDATE

by Bill Kirk, SCSC Representative

The Texas Ski Council met in San Antonio on April 21-22, 1990, for the annual bid selections for the 1990-91 ski season and the election of officers.

The bid process starts by sending Requests for Bids to all the ski areas. As the bids are received, a pre-bid selection committee reviews all the bids, checking for compliance with TSC bid requirements and selects approximately three to four areas to be presented for each ski week at the actual meeting. The areas selected send representatives from marketing to present their bids and field questions from the delegates of the 21 clubs that make up the Texas Ski Council. The process continues until all the clubs vote and a final slate of trips is selected and voted on. The following areas were awarded the bids:

|-----------------------|------------|
| Thanksgiving Round-up | Vail |
| Traditional | Snowmass |
| Winter Shootout | Sun Valley |
| Final Showdown | Banff |
| Expedition | Courmayeur |

I believe they are all great areas. Please check "VP-Trips" article for more information. The delegates approved an increase on the activity package to $25, which should improve activities at the ski areas (old rate $15).

The new slate of TSC officers are:

PUB CRAWL

by Eugene Walker

The Pub Crawl started about 5:30 on Friday, April 27. We met at Bayou Mamma's Swamp Bar to get one free drink and a great free buffet. At 6:30 the bus was nowhere to be found, even with various scouts searching the surrounding parking lots. At 7:15 we divided up into car pools, some forty people scattering to seven different bars, and finding more of our group at each stop. One car pool with Dan Simpson, Laurie Homburg, Eugene Walker and Oswald took off to the Jockey Club and Blue Ridge Bar. They went down one way streets the wrong way, over grass covered media, down warehouse back alleys. Now we know why Sally Helfer drives a 4-wheel drive. At the Jockey Club we were met by a disappointed manager who, after greeting us, ran outside trying to find other members of the group. Of course, we couldn't go by the Blue Ridge without having just one quick one.

The big group of fifteen people went to Blanco's where they found a great band. Llona Wicks showed off some of her moves on the dance floor with Tom Fitzpatrick and Manolo Valle. Sandy was reported to have gotten new single instructions from a cowboy at the Shuffleboard?? Edgar Moss and his car pool discovered the lost bus in Randall's parking lot. He followed Edgar to Blanco's in hopes of picking up some passengers. At 8:30 he left for home empty and unharmed.

About twenty people made Keaneally's Irish Pub in time to listen to the Irish band, while outside the rain, hail stones and lightning set off car alarms. We discovered some of our group to be there waiting on us - Carol, Ellen, Richard and others, some of which had missed us at the Jockey Club. An unknown Irishman approached Sally, wanting to know what she named the other one?? (Ask Sally about the placement of her name tag.)

Jacquel McMullen with Eugene Walker showed her Irish to all by doing an Irish Jig. A group led by Stuart Traver, ventured over to the dart room where Jan Eifert was declared the big winner in hitting the wall. Ask Richard?

When the rain gave us a break, we moseyed on over to the last stop, In-Cahoot's, to listen to a great DJ and dance the night away. Some close dancing couples were seen on the dance floor, Joyce and Mike, also Lynn and Wayne and Nancy and Jeff, plus others. Two of our group were seen crawling to Denny's at 3:00 a.m.

After a dinner of barbecue and beer was served and every last morsel was licked away, the local Czech Heritage Society singers and dancers came to entertain. What they lacked in talent, they made up for in enthusiasm. The campers seemed to enjoy the local color and the group enjoyed their visit.

Upon waking Sunday morning, Ed Cain and Oswald Castillo were found munching kolaches and drinking coffee. After breakfast the tents were folded, good-byes given, and the campers began to leave. By noon, no one would have ever guessed that 40 plus souls had been there having a good time with old friends and new friends -- communing (?) with nature!!!

Jim Plummer excited by the entertainment.
