Thirteen GRAND Ski Trips Sign Up at the GRAND Hotel September 9th at 7:30 p.m.

Head of the Liftline

by RON SMITH

The Houston Grand is where the lines are. So if you are at any other hotel, you will not get to sign up for your ski trip. The Grand will have a bar set up to allow all you who wish to get there early to ensure yourself a trip. As in past years, starting at 5:30, we will issue tickets for entrance based on your arrival at the meeting. For all our first time members remember:

1. Wear comfortable shoes.
2. Bring your membership card (call Gordon Wise if you didn't get it in this issue of the Sitzmarke).
3. Pick the trip you want the most and stay in line.

In case you don't know which trip is "The" trip for you, read all about them in this issue. We have all you need to know to make a decision. Bill Kirk, Harold Eaton, Ann Batten and all the TC's and ATC's have worked their tails off (which is why they get to sit down at this meeting) to bring you a set of trips second to none.

We will be collecting food for the Houston Food Bank at this meeting and I would like to see everyone who comes to the meeting bring a can of food or drop us a cash donation. See Sue Bohnert at the meeting, Community Relations Table.

Just to highlight a few activities which you will also be able to sign up for at this meeting, we will have:

- Shrimp Boil - a new activity

premiering September 15

- Wine Country Tour - See and sip in California
- Mercer's Campout - Always fills so pay now and be there
- SCSC Fun Run - Join SCSC's for 1 mile to 10K of lung searing excitement

- Other specials I can't remember now but are highlighted in the Sitzmarke

The Happy Hour will be at Elmos. Check back in the Sitzmarke for time and location.

Remember -- We will meet at the Grand September 9th. See the crude map on the opposite page.

SHAPING UP WITH TENNIS

by Mel Tawney

Forty hearty souls and several innocent bystanders braved the midsummer heat by going indoors for a three flight tennis tournament on Sunday, July 28th at Fondren Tennis Center. While there were numerous inferences that tennis is really something else, Bob Wilbanks photographically recorded evidence that most people had a lot of fun.

Shepherders Jan Livingston and Doris Hemsworth became switch hitters by delivering beer and soft drinks while simultaneously directing players to appropriate locations of competition, fun and learning. Andy Fitzpatrick, Gordon Wise and Adera Lawson played significant lobbying roles while in tennis disguise.

SUMMER BASH '85

by Ted Bergeron

On July 21 the Greek Orthodox Community Center was invaded by 160 people claiming to be members of a ski club. Since there was no snow, they came to do all those things most ski club members do, like softball, volleyball, tennis, horseshoes, basketball, swimming, eating and drinking. Well, at least the last two activities sound like true ski club activities.

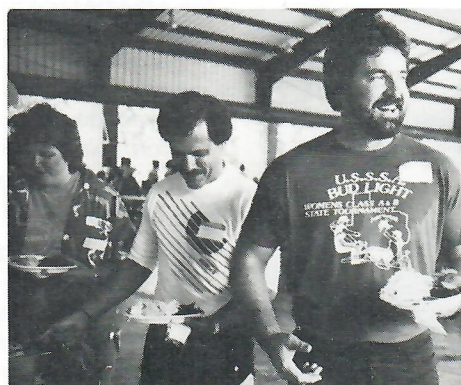

The Bash got off to a frightful start for me, because at ten minutes to two o'clock, the beer had not yet been delivered. The Bash started at 2 o'clock and people were already beginning to arrive. When I saw the delivery truck drive up at 5 minutes till 2, I knew I would survive the day no matter what else happened, because the beer was here!

The temperature was pushing 95°, but in true SCSC spirit, no one seemed to let the heat interfere with their plans. As a matter of fact the heat seemed to fit right in with Floyd Hanks' plans. He decided to sit out the planned activities to spend his time in the shade talking with all the pretty girls. Well, after six hours of "relaxing in the shade," he was finally coaxed into breaking a sweat in the last volleyball game of the day. Among those seen enjoying tennis were: Ed Barnett, Layna Adams, Linda Grutman, Barry Grutman, Tania Andrasko, and Jeri Rotenberg.

Volleyball was the most popular sports activity, second only to raiding the beer kegs. Some of those enjoying volleyball were: Fred Brumfield, Ed Caine, Robert Clements, Lynn Danhauser, Andy Fitzpatrick, Harry Gaston, Nancy Harder, Bill Kirk, Clara Marshall, John Rice, Ron Rambin, Adera Lawson and about a hundred others.

Among those braving the heat to play softball were: Becky Hall, Lisa Steckley, Blaise Guerrero, Tom Mercer, Dick Howard, Glenn Bishop, Mike Gerstenberger, Jim Plummer and many others.

Later in the day, many went

swimming to escape the heat, where they found Carlos Febles checking out all the girls in bikinis. Only two injuries occurred during all the festivities: Andy Fitzpatrick twisted his ankle and Bill Kirk jammed his fingers while playing volleyball. All in all, it was a great day of fun and an opportunity to be with your friends.

In an activity this large, there are many people to thank: Bob Goggins, Bill Kirk, Pam Paillet, John Rice, Susie Little John and Debbie Bergeron who manned the Registration Desk; Old Hickory Stick Catering for their excellent food and service; Mike Gerstenberger, Bill Kirk and John Rice for contributing ice chests.

My sincere thanks to John Rice, my Assistant Activity Co-ordinator, for organizing the sports equipment.

Most of all I would like to express my thanks to my wife, Debbie, who contributed so much in the behind the scenes work and in the overall organization of this year's Bash.

Read applicable standing rules regarding penalties, cancellation, transfers, etc. They are listed in your directory and printed on the Trip Deposit and Release Form.

• BECOME INFORMED ABOUT THE TRIP BEFORE YOU SIGN UP

Ask Liftliner if you are in the right line for the trip you want to sign up for. Read information concerning trips in Sitzmarke Schedule in September issue. Read trip handout information sheet. Ask Trip

Chairman any question before sign up.

If going for a drink or whatever, tell the person to hold your place - not too long, though, you may lose your place.

KEYSTONE Fall Roundup

Nov. 26 to Dec. 1

$425

If you want to start the 1985 ski season off with a bang, then be one of the first to sign up for the Thanksgiving trip. This year the TSC Fall Roundup returns to Keystone to explore the new North Peak. Colorado's newest challenge offers nine new expert and intermediate runs serviced by two triple chair lifts. But for those of you who want to ease into your ski legs again, try the new gondola up Keystone mountain. Keystone's snow making equipment guarantees 75% of the total area will be open for all of us early birds!

Now for the second surprise! Remember the rush trying to beat the holiday crowd to the airport? Well, this year we'll be leaving Tuesday night (let me repeat that - Tuesday night) November 26, arriving at Keystone early enough to get a decent night's rest. We'll stay at the Pines Condominiums for five nights and enjoy four full days of skiing. Imagine, we'll have the mountain to ourselves on Wednesday! Then the TSC activities begin with race clinics, the club race, the margarita party and the awards dinner party. After four hard days of skiing and partying, we'll be leaving Keystone Sunday morning, December 1, and return to Houston without our usual late night red eyes.

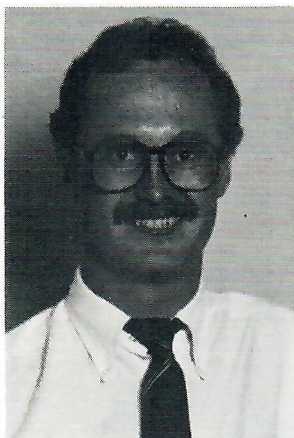

So what are you waiting for? Sign up at the September meeting!

SNOWMASS I Texas Ski Week

Jan. 11 - Jan. 18

$602

Come with us and celebrate at SNOWMASS. Treat yourself to an unforgettable Texas Ski Week at one of the world's premier ski resorts. You will stay at the luxurious Enclave Condos (ski in/out access) offering all the amenities you desire including outdoor sauna/pool.

Since Snowmass is a destination resort, you will not be in competition with local skiers for services. Snowmass offers you 90 runs equal to 55 miles spread over 1,560 acres of skiing with eleven double and two triple chair lifts. Sixty percent of the runs are rated intermediate level, 15% easy and 25% expert.

As part of Texas Ski Week you are encouraged to participate in the Nastar team and individual races, and fun races. In addition to the slopes of Snowmass, you can take advantage of two other mountains in the area on the same ticket, Aspen Mountain and Buttermilk. Buttermilk provides gentle slopes on which to learn and Aspen is the expert's delight, challenging even the world's best racers. After skiing you can take pleasure in Texas Ski Week's off-mountain activities which include chili cook-offs, hot air balloon races, and theme parties (ten gallon hat & pajama) with live entertainment. You will also enjoy Snowmass I's hot tub, cocktail and wine and cheese parties. ## SNOWMASS III Texas Ski Week

$545

IS THE SHORT TRIP TO TEXAS SKI WEEK OVER-PRICED? We don't think so! Is it worth a premium to:

- Avoid 10 hours of riding on a bus?
- Minimize the hassle of baggage handling?
- Save those limited vacation days for other trips?
- Join 1600 of your closest friends at TEXAS SKI WEEK?

Snowmass III is designed especially for those harried individuals who can't take off a whole week but want to experience the camaraderie, frivolity and decadence of the one and only TEXAS SKI WEEK.

We leave Wednesday at 3:00 P.M. from Hobby (it's close) Airport on Frontier Airlines and will be back in Houston on Sunday night at 10:15 P.M. You'll be able to ski FOUR FULL DAYS! We fly right into Aspen and catch a "Mellow Yellow" van to the Stonebridge Inn just in time for our first of many attitude adjustment sessions in prelude to the Texas Ski Councils Wednesday night activity.

The Texas Ski Council will provide the usual discount lift tickets, free race clinics, club races and parties, but look to co-hosts Charles and Rick to add the "classic" formula to make this trip a unique experience.

It may cost a few dollars more to travel in style but you're worth it!

Jan. 12 - Jan. 19

"THE ULTIMATE TRIP"

This year the lucky participants headed to Aspen will really go first class. We'll fly all the way and stay in luxury!

We'll leave January 12 (Sunday) via Continental Airlines and Aspen Air and arrive in Aspen in mid-morning with plenty of time and energy to ski, shop, party, etc. The return will be on Sunday, January 19.

For the first time in SCSC's history, we'll stay at the GANT. These 2-bedroom, 2-bath condos are rated deluxe and are truly luxurious. The Gant has a private shuttle to take you wherever your heart desires around town, whenever you get the urge. It also features 3 Jacuzzis, 2 saunas, and 2 heated pools for relaxing after skiing, and is located 2 blocks from the Little Nell lift and from town.

Four mountains offer any degree of challenge, and we have discounted lift tickets to help you enjoy them.

This will put you in the proper frame of mind for races and parties in Snowmass for Texas Ski Week, as well as Winterskol (Aspen's answer to Mardi Gras). We will also have our own parties and apres ski galas.

All we need is 42 smiling faces. Come and experience the true definition of fun!

Don't miss this trip to Park City. Forty-four ski loving SCSC members will enjoy a short bus trip (once we get to Salt Lake - 2 hrs.) and those who can't wait will be able to ski the same day we travel, Saturday January 25th.

"COMIN' ON STRONG"

From the moment you arrive you'll notice the difference. Located in the beautiful San Juan Mountains, Purgatory is Colorado's largest southwest ski resort, with an average annual snowfall in excess of 300 inches and a mountain with over 35 miles of ski trails. Everyone can enjoy their favorite run from beginner slopes to the most experienced skier. "The Legends," which until this season was only accessible via helicopter, will offer an additional 120 acres of advanced intermediate and expert terrain, serviced by a triple chair lift.

This short trip is planned to include 3 1/2 days of skiing and fun filled parties. After a day on the slopes, retire to the Cascade Village condos and put your feet up in the Flume Lounge and enjoy cocktails while viewing the breathtaking scenery; or relax in the indoor heated pool and hot tub; or gaze at the stars from the outdoor hot tub.

CRESTED BUTTE

Winter Shootout

Feb. 15 - Feb. 22

$464

It's Texas Ski Week Winter Shootout time again. Come ski with us in Crested Butte, far from the maddening Denver crowd, where the lift lines are short and the sun shines longer. Crested Butte is located 250 miles southwest of Denver in the Elk Mountains. All levels of skiing are offered, from Rollercoaster for taking it slow and easy, to Paradise Bowl for bigger thrills, to the ultimate test of Jokerville for those who are brave enough. However, if you want to take a break from skiing, you could do some sightseeing in town--a National Historic District, or try some innertubing, snowmobiling, or sleigh riding.

Be one of the 44 Space City skiers to depart Houston on Saturday, February 15, about 9:00 a.m. to Dallas and then on to Gunnison. (Just think, you don't have to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning for a 6:00 a.m. flight!) Then we'll take a short 31-mile bus trip to the slopes for six full days of skiing and fun. We'll be staying in the Mountain Edge Condos which are within walking distance to the lift. There's a hot tub and sauna, too, so don't forget your swimsuit.

We'll be planning several Space City get-togethers in addition to the Texas Ski Council parties. And we can't forget about the great Texas Cup Race on Thursday followed by the Awards Ceremony on Friday night.

Do you think you can handle this full week of fun? Well, if so, be sure to sign up for this Simply Spectacular trip at the September meeting. Help Space City win back the Texas Ski Cup. Think snow!

We plan to fly into Jackson Hole and then take a short bus ride to Teton Village and the Sojourner Inn. The Inn is right next to the tram station, shops and restaurants, which include the Mangy Moose and, downtown, the Million Dollar Cowboy Bar. Have you ever eaten Rocky Mountain Oysters? Great for energy; or, tasted Buffalo Stew?

For a change of pace, you can travel over the mountain into Idaho and ski at undiscovered Grand Targhee, a powderhound's paradise.

The adventurous might consider the ultimate ski experience -helicopter skiing. Just getting there is half the fun, and the scenery is spectacular. Have you ever skied untouched powder all day?

How about the thrill of riding a snowmobile through Yellowstone Park? Thermal geysers mate with cold winter air to create surreal ice sculptures.

Of course, there will be the traditional apres skiing of drinking beer in the hot tub, swimming in the outdoor pool, wine and cheese parties on the slopes and cocktail parties at the Inn.

See you there!!!!

BRECKENRIDGE

Spring Break Family Ski Trip

Mar. 22 - Mar. 29
$531.00

Breckenridge began making history over 125 years ago with silver and gold mining. Later, in 1961, Breckenridge began making history with a new kind of abundant treasure - SNOW.

Through all of its colorful history, Breckenridge has remained the oldest authentic Victorian Mining town in Colorado. You'll want to discover the historic town of Breckenridge with its beautifully restored 19th century architecture and a variety of fine shops and boutiques. There's a live theatre, over 60 saloons and restaurants -and that's all wrapped up with the Breckenridge friendly Victorian charm.

Over 70 superb ski trails cater to every level of ability. Breckenridge offers more than enough terrain for every kind of skier...from experts to the first-timer kind. There are three other resorts in the Summit area - Copper Mountain, Keystone and Arapahoe Basin - all just a short bus ride away. When you tire of downhill, there's cross country skiing - plus snowmobiling, sleigh rides and ice skating.

After a 1 1/2 hour scenic drive from Denver's Stapleton International Airport via I-70, we will arrive at Beaver Run Resort Center, a virtual resort world unto itself. From almost the first snowfall, enjoy the best in winter activities right outside your front door. A premier ski-in/out resort, two lifts located at the base of Peak 9. Beaver Run is a complete recreation center which has six outdoor hot tubs, an indoor Jacuzzi, saunas, steam room, exercise room, indoor/outdoor swimming pool and poolside bar. A self-contained resort, Beaver Run has 3 restaurants, bar, night club, deli, gift shop, beauty salon, miniature indoor golf course, table tennis, video arcade, sundry and liquor store. Group rates for ski rental and ski lessons are available on premises.

All condominiums have a moss rock fireplace, private balcony, fully equipped kitchen & color cable TV.

With so many things to do, Beaver Run Resort is the perfect place to bring the entire family. And when you want to get away without the youngsters, there's a orado. Beaver Run will host a complimentary Miniature Golf Tournament and Awards Party for everyone. There will be optional group snowmobiling at discounted rates.

Due to a large demand, this will be the first Family Ski Trip for Space City. Limited to 44 LUCKY participants consisting of families with children 6 years or older. Singles will be allowed to sign up on the waiting list only. ALL of this can be yours for the mere price of $531.00!!

WINDSURFING AT MUD LAKE

by Michelle Lamb

Sunday, July 14, 1985 found about 50 SCSC members and guests at Mud Lake. All afternoon, 15 boards with sails skimmed the surface, providing thrills and entertainment for both rookies and "regulars." A canoe supplied for "rescue" missions fortunately was seldom needed. Special thanks to George Hirasaki, Merlyn Harger, Ray Naudain, Easy Thayer, John Cook, Fred Kahrs, Ray Davis, Mark Erb and Greg King for supplying and sharing sail boards for all.
